Members and regular attendees will be challenged in a variety of ways to honestly assess their current stewardship practices as well as sacrificial, over and above giving for the project.

Education curriculum will be made available. Review these options with your Consultant and distribute the material to all applicable teachers with instructions.

Some recommended adult education options for your campaign include:

- ❖ The Giving Journey
- ❖ To Whom Much is Given

Train Your Teachers and/or Small Group Leaders & Distribute Bible Study Lesson Materials

Once you have been trained by your Impact Consultant and selected your lesson material, you will want to train your team members (teachers and group leaders) for their specific responsibilities and distribute the education material to each of them.

Meet with the teachers and group leaders to cover the lessons, the importance of their utilization and calendar dates for the lessons to be taught.

Confirm Class Teachers and Group Leader Readiness

After meeting with all adult teachers and group leaders to discuss the plan, follow up with them to confirm that they are ready for implementation.

Implement the Adult Stewardship Education Plan

Typically used from Sunday 1 through Sunday 4 leading up to Commitment Day, the education plan will be a key foundation to the program. Please confirm this schedule with your consultant as sometimes holiday weekends can interrupt the flow of this plan.

Many other activities and communication will tie into the education plans so it is important that education plans are executed in a timely manner.
